03 Oct 13

From: Officer in Charge, U. S. Navy Information Operations Command, Georgia Detachment Souda Bay, Crete
To: Commanding Officer, U.S. Navy Information Operations Command, Georgia

Via: N34 Division Officer

Subj: PERFORMANCE INFORMATION MEMORANDUM (PIM) ICO CTI2(NAC) MEGAN C. RODGERS

Ref: (a) BUPERSINST 1610.10

1. Per reference (a), the following information is provided:

a. Period of Duty: 29MAR13-03OCT13

b. Type of duty: TEMADD to CTG 67.4, Souda Bay, Crete.

c. Duties assigned: Airborne Cryptologic Direct Support Element (ACDSE) Operator-6 onboard Fleet Air Reconnaissance Squadron One (VQ-1) aircraft.

d. Comments: Petty Officer Rodgers was deployed to CTG 67.4, Souda Bay, Crete for 189 days in support of (ISO) U.S. Africa Command (AFRICOM), U.S. Central Command (CENTCOM), U.S. European Command (EUCOM), Commander, Sixth Fleet (C6F), and national tasking. Her specific accomplishments include:

- Accrued 497.1 flight hours during 61 reconnaissance missions supporting AFRICOM, CENTCOM, and EUCOM tasking. Produced 778 time-sensitive reports ISO national, theater and fleet directed operational tasking.
- Qualified as an EP-3E Special Operator, 9HEB Basic Operator (BOP) and Naval Aircrew Warfare Specialist (NAWS).
- Delivered an AOR capabilities presentation resulting in 36 man-hours of formal training tailored to the current mission requirements. Her efforts resulted in increased situational awareness in EP-3E capabilities and limitations.
- Drafted and disseminated the CTE 1050.1.4.1 Weekly Status Reports (WSR) for the detachment, apprising the chain of command of operational developments and training progress.
- Managed Air Operations Division (N34) web pages, ensuring widest dissemination of all post-mission reports. Maintained and distributed all recall information for the detachment.

Petty Officer Rodgers proved herself an extremely valuable asset to the crew during this deployment. Her professionalism, exceptional work ethic, military bearing, and maturity were unwavering and set a standard for Special Operators. Her support as an operator was absolutely critical to mission success. Petty Officer Rodgers is very highly recommended for future deployments and more demanding leadership opportunities.

B. W. CHAPMAN
LTJG USN